review 1: I enjoyed this book but it didn't blow me away. I liked the concept, two teens dealing with different issues meet and form a relationship at a reform school. A Really Awesome Mess is fun and cute, as fun and cute as you can possibly expect in a book about teenagers with mental illnesses at a boarding school for troubled teens. For a topic that's decidedly unfunny, this book reads like a lighthearted romp where it could've just as easily been a dark book about modern teens.
