Conservatism is a political and social philosophy promoting traditional social institutions in the context of culture and civilization. The central tenets of conservatism include tradition, human imperfection, organic solidarity, hierarchy, authority, and property rights. Conservatives seek to preserve a range of institutions such as monarchy, religion, parliamentary government, and property ...

The Survivors History Group was founded in April 2005 to value and celebrate the contribution that mental health service users/survivors have made and are making to history. It is working towards a comprehensive history on this site and in a book. It will also preserve historical material in digital form on this site, and in printed and other forms.

Until the fire of 1834, the two Houses of Parliament (Lords and Commons) met in the medieval Palace of Westminster, a group of buildings that stood on the same site as the present Houses of Parliament. From the 14th century to 1800 the Lords sat in the White Chamber. In 1801 the Lords moved into the building of the Court of Requests.
