Nobody Ever Said Aidspoems And Stories From Southern

The idea of an anthology of writings by or about people living with HIV/AIDS in southern Africa started in 2002, at a time when there was "virtually no published creative writing" in the region in English, as explained in the "Introduction" of Nobody ever said AIDS.

Nobody Ever Said AIDS: Poems and Stories from Southern

While numerous texts have dealt with the AIDS pandemic in Africa "from the clinical, economic, and sociological to the academic and technical" this anthology of poems and short stories connects on a human level and reflects an entire society dealing with the challenges of overcoming AIDS and HIV.
